For Kids and Families

Gardening with Miss Stacey:

May 24 / 25 at 4 pm

Miss Stacey invites you to plant and care for flowers kept at the library over the summer to help make our space more colorful and beautiful! Additionally, families are allowed to plant a flower to take home to color their own world. Call the library and register today! Thanks goes to Theisen's for sponsorship of this program.

Carnival Kick-Off: June 2 at 5 pm

On June 2 from 5 to 7, Miss Stacey will kick off our summer reading program with an outdoor carnival! Families are free to come at their own convenience to play games, get a snack, register for summer children's events, and learn more about this year's program. We hope to see you there!

Summer Program Sneak-Peak

Reading Colors Your World

The summer theme for libraries across the state is Reading Colors Your World. Programs for children and teens in Charles City will include Juggler Jason Kollom, an art camp, YA space make-over events, a regular Read & Feed Storytime on Thursdays, and many more presentations and activities. Adults can also participate in the fun with a Bad Art Night, historical presentations, adult coloring, and more. Information will become available as program dates approach.

For Adults

Virtual Name That Tune:

May 6 / May 20 at 7 pm

CCPL welcomes Ben Pernick back for two more interactive, virtual programs of Name That Tune. The program was created with adults in mind, but all ages are welcome to participate.

Zoom Meeting ID: 883 9858 2092

Smorgasbord Book Club:

May 25 at 5:30 pm

This month, we're pleased to begin a new, casual in-person book club. The Smorgasbord Book Club has no required reading—simply come and talk with the group about what books you've picked up lately. The meeting will begin at 5:30 and last approximately one hour; let us know today if you're interested!

Whenever, Wherever YA Want Online

Book Club: The House in the Cerulean Sea

May's YA book is The House in the Cerulean Sea by T. J. Klune. Discussion questions will be posted on the Facebook group—come to the library to pick up your copy today!

Other Services

Take Home Crafts and Bags

The current to-go crafts for children are Star Wars-themed. May the Fourth be with you! Adults can also grab a take-home Make a Pizza Garden kit. Crafts and kits are limited, so stop by the library to get your supplies today!
